WELCOME

Are you a newcomer or a visitor to our church? If so, we extend to you a very warm welcome. Should we have overlooked welcoming you personally, please make yourself known to a churchwarden, or to a sidesman.

You may wish to note that hymn verses marked with an asterisk are omitted, unless indicated on the front page alongside the hymn number.

If you require a gluten-free altar bread, please speak to the priest before the service.

We also have a Junior Church that meets in the adjoining hall. Please ask a churchwarden for more information.

Toilets (including accessible facilities) are available in the church hall.

You are invited to join us for a cup of coffee or tea in the church hall after the 10 o'clock service.

Lent Course

It would be useful to know how many people might be interested and whether an afternoon or evening meeting would be preferable. I should be most grateful if anyone interested would have a word with me so that we can think about what might be viable. Howard

The Sound System.

Thank you to the anonymous donors who have gifted sums towards the cost of the new sound system. Should you wish to help, please put your donation in an envelope and drop it in the collection plate.

Copies of The Bulletin.

The Bulletin is now available on the church website (www.rydeallsaints.church) and individual copies will no longer be emailed weekly.

COLLECT AND READINGS FOR THE THIRD SUNDAY BEFORE LENT

Collect

O almighty God,
who alone canst order the unruly wills
and affections of the sinful:
grant unto thy people
that they may love the thing which thou commandest
and desire that which thou dost promise, that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world,
our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found;
through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord,
who liveth and reigneth with thee,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

THE FIRST READING IS WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

Thus says the LORD:

“Cursed is the man who trusts in man
and makes flesh his arm,
whose heart turns away from the LORD.
He is like a shrub in the desert,
and shall not see any good come.
He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness,
in an uninhabited salt land.

“Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD,
whose trust is in the LORD.
He is like a tree planted by water,
that sends out its roots by the stream,
and does not fear when heat comes,
for its leaves remain green,
and is not anxious in the year of drought,
for it does not cease to bear fruit.”

The heart is deceitful above all things,
and desperately corrupt;
who can understand it?
“I the LORD search the mind
and try the heart,
to give every man according to his ways,
according to the fruit of his doings.”

Jeremiah 17.5 - 10

THE EPISTLE IS WRITTEN IN THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Now if Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised; if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain. We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified of God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised. If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most to be pitied.

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

I Corinthians 15.12 - 20

THIS IS THE WORD OF THE LORD
ALL: THANKS BE TO GOD.

HEAR THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO LUKE

ALL: GLORY BE TO THEE, O LORD

And Jesus came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all the crowd sought to touch him, for power came forth from him and healed them all.

And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said:

“Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

“Blessed are you that hunger now, for you shall be satisfied.

“Blessed are you that weep now, for you shall laugh.

“Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude you and revile you, and cast out your name as evil, on account of the Son of man! Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets.

“But woe to you that are rich, for you have received your consolation.

“Woe to you that are full now, for you shall hunger.

“Woe to you that laugh now, for you shall mourn and weep.

“Woe to you, when all men speak well of you, for so their fathers did to the false prophets.

THIS IS THE GOSPEL OF THE LORD

ALL: PRAISE BE TO THEE, O CHRIST

Post Communion Prayer

Merciful Father,

who didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ

to be for us the bread of life,

that those who come to him should never hunger:

draw us to him in faith and love,

that we may eat and drink with him

at his table in the kingdom,

where he liveth and reigneth, now and for ever. Amen

Palm Crosses for Recycling

If you would like to bring your palm crosses for recycling for Ash Wednesday, there is a tray at the back of the church.

Hymnathon

Please could you put March 9th in your diary. As this is a first for the Island, perhaps you could invite family, friends, neighbours etc, to come and join in with us.

Andrew is going to be playing the organ for 18 hours, playing 513 hymns from our New English Hymnal. Amazing!!! Please come and support him. This is to raise money for a Youth Community Choir which All Saints' is running with local primary schools. If you have friends who sing in choirs on the Island, encourage them to come and listen or sing with Andrew in support of "choirs of the future".

There will also be a paper plane competition from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Pay 50p to have as many goes as you like. Fly your own design – the longest flight wins prize: First prize Blue Tooth paper plane; 2nd prize £20; 3rd prize £10.

Refreshments are available in the hall during the day.

%%%%%%%%%

Shrove Tuesday March 5th - 12 noon till 2 p.m. - £5.00

Join us at 48 The Mall, Binstead for pancakes and a glass of wine/fruit juice - and there is also a Bring and Buy stall.

The next 'Monday Mob' Meeting will be held on 11th March at 9 a.m.

As we are unable to use the Hall, alternative arrangements will be made for teas, coffees etc. – "Don't work too hard" - Noreen

50:50 Club

The draw took place on 3rd February. Well done to the following winners:

1 st Prize	62	£14.	Brenda
2 nd Prize	80	£10.	Jim
3 rd Prize	25	£5.	Estella & Kim

The Church received £29.

Thank you to everyone who takes part in this small fundraiser. The next payments, £6 for each number, are due on 24th February. If anyone else would like to join have a word with Pam or John.

Thank You

Annual Revision of the Church Electoral Roll

Notice of the annual revision has been posted on the notice board at the west end of the church. The Roll will be revised, beginning on Monday the 4th day of March 2019 and ending on Friday 15th March 2019.

What is the Electoral Roll?

It is your parish church's register of electors. In the same way that being on the civic Electoral Roll allows you to vote in parliamentary and local elections and referenda, joining the Church Electoral Roll means that you can vote on Church matters, attend the Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM) and stand for election to the PCC.

Who is the Electoral Roll for?

The Church Electoral Roll is for lay persons only. Retired clergy are still clergy and therefore not eligible for inclusion.

Do I have to join?

You can of course be a full and active member of All Saints' Church without joining the Roll. Being on the Electoral Roll does not entail signing up to any additional commitments. However, it does help the Church show its strength: representation on the governing bodies of the church depends on the number on the Electoral Roll. Joining the Roll is compulsory if you wish to stand for election to the PCC or other synodical council (such as the Deanery, Diocesan or General Synod) or attend the APCM and participate in votes.

If you live outside the Parish and want to come onto the Electoral Roll, you have to have been worshipping at All Saints' for a minimum period of six months.

Your Electoral Roll Officer at All Saints' is Roi Milburn, from whom application forms are available, and to whom they should be returned.

The Parish Office is normally open on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

(There is a weekly staff meeting on Mondays from 9.30 a.m.)
