Disclaimer

This policy was last updated on the: 24th May 2018

Information on this website is provided for general purpose information only, unless otherwise stated.

Your regular review of these terms is assumed with your continued use of the website.

We do not provide any warranty or guarantee as to the accuracy, timeliness, performance, completeness or sustainability of the information and materials found and offered on this website for any particular purpose.

Despite our best efforts this website in whole may contain errors, we do not accept liability for loss or damage caused by inaccurate information.

For use of any information or materials on this website is entirely at your own risk, for which we shall not be liable. It shall be your own responsibility to ensure that any products/services or information available including without limitation, indirect or consequential loss or damage, or any loss or damage whatsoever arising from the loss of data or profits arising out of, or in connection with the use of this website meet your specific requirements; in no event will we be liable for any loss or damage including without limitation, indirect or consequential loss or damage, or any loss or damage whatsoever arising from the loss of data or profits arising out of, or in connection with the use of this website.

We may include links to and from other sites, by following these links you are agreeing to the respective sites own terms and policies; 'we' hold not obligation or further contract once you have left the pages of our site and accept no responsibility or liability for the contents of these sites or their terms.

We hold no control over the content of such sites and disclaim any liability in respect of your use of such sites.

We do not like spam and will never knowingly send spam to you.

We will never sell, rent or otherwise distribute or make public your personal information without your permissions.

About

All Saints' Church Ryde are committed to protecting the personal information of our users. This policy answers some important questions about how 'we' collect, use and protect your personal details including:

- What personally identifiable information is collected from you through this website (<http://www.rydeallsaints.org.uk>), how it is used and with whom it may be shared.
- What choices are available to you regarding your data
- Security procedures 'we' have in place to protect your personal information
- information about our cookies policy.

How and Why we collect information

As with the vast majority of websites, this website automatically collects information relating to requests sent via your computer/web browser, this information is used for system administration, bug tracking, site misuse and statistical information related to the usage of the website. The information collected will be kept and reviewed periodically.

Information is also collected through our online contact forms and email links – we will use your information to reply to your communication but it is never shared with third parties without your consent (except through that of our website development company Isle of Wight Geek)

What we collect

When using our website we sometimes receive personal information about you. For example, if you fill in a contact form you will tell us who you are and how we can contact you, any comment you might make and any message you leave/submit through contact forms.

We will also collect anonymised browsing information, through Google Analytics such as:

- Page Information
 - URL – the URL of the page the user is viewing
 - Title – the title of the page the user is viewing
- Browser Information
 - Browser name – the browser the user is using
 - Viewport or Viewing pane – the size of the browser window
 - Screen resolution – the resolution of the user’s screen
 - Java enabled – whether or not the user has Java enabled
- User Information
 - Location – this is derived from the IP address where the hit originated. The IP address itself is anonymized and cannot be seen
 - Language – derived from the language settings of the browser
 - Date and time you visit our website
 - Device –The type of device your using (Desktop, mobile, tablet), branding model and marketing name of your device (if available) and your service provider
 - Source/Medium - where your came from. The Source is the place you were are before seeing coming to our website, like a search engine or another website. The Medium describes how you arrived at our website.

- Viewing behaviour – includes information of which pages you visit, which page you viewed beforehand, how long you are on a page, what links you clicked and which page you visited next (or if you left the site) – This information is a gathered statistic and cannot be used to personally identify

No personally identifiable information is collected about you unless you explicitly submit that information on this website. We are not able to single out any single user of our website using the data we collect.

Our Google Analytics data retention period is currently set to 26months; all new data will reset the retention period of the user identifier with each new event from that user (thus setting the expiration date to current time plus retention period).

How we use this information

Summary statistics are extracted from the data collected, some of which may be made publicly available – however these will not include any personal information by which individuals could be identified.

If you pass information to us through the website including contact information we may use this to reply to your communication, provide you with services (eg. Newsletters), alert you to other relative information, events, news, etc. We will keep your information confidential and generally we will only use your information within All Saints' Church Ryde.

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so.

Third Parties

Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics to help analyse how visitors use this site. Google Analytics uses “cookies”, which are small text files placed on your computer, to collect standard internet log information and visitor behaviour information in an anonymous form.

The anonymised information generated by Google Analytics cookies about your use of this website is transmitted directly to Google. This information is processed to compile statistical reports on website activity for this website only. All Saints' Church Ryde use these reports to evaluate aggregate visitor usage so that we can optimise the content, and its marketing, to better meet your needs.

Google Analytics

These cookies collect information about how visitors use a website, for instance which pages visitors go to most often, and if they get error messages from web pages. These cookies don't collect information that identifies a visitor. All information these cookies collect is aggregated and therefore anonymous.

This data helps us to understand:

- Which pages people visit on the site

- Which internet browsers are being used
- What is popular on the site
- Which interactive tools are used by visitors

Our Google Analytics data retention period is currently set to 26months; all new data will reset the retention period of the user identifier with each new event from that user (thus setting the expiration date to current time plus retention period).

All data collected is visible only to the communications team and the secretary at Portsmouth Diocese and is translated into average stats when sharing with a wider team – this information is never shared with third parties.

You can find out more about Google’s cookies on their privacy policy: www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy.

You can also install the Google Analytics Opt-out tools in your browser: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>

About this cookie:

This cookie name is associated with Google Universal Analytics. This appears to be a new cookie and as of Spring 2017 no information is available from Google. It appears to store and update a unique value for each page visited.

The main purpose of this cookie is: Performance

_gat

About this cookie: This cookie name is associated with Google Universal Analytics, according to documentation it is used to throttle the request rate - limiting the collection of data on high traffic sites. It expires after 10 minutes.

The main purpose of this cookie is: Performance

_ga

About this cookie: This cookie name is associated with Google Universal Analytics - which is a significant update to Google's more commonly used analytics service. This cookie is used to distinguish unique users by assigning a randomly generated number as a client identifier. It is included in each page request in a site and used to calculate visitor, session and campaign data for the sites analytics reports.

The main purpose of this cookie is: Performance

__utma

About this cookie: This is one of the four main cookies set by the Google Analytics service which enables website owners to track visitor behaviour and measure site performance. This cookie lasts for 2 years by default and distinguishes between users and sessions. It is used to calculate new and returning visitor statistics. The cookie is updated every time data is sent to Google Analytics.

These cookies...

__unam

About this cookie: This cookie is usually associated with the ShareThis social sharing widget placed in a site to enable sharing of content across various social networks. It counts clicks and shares of a page.

The main purpose of this cookie is: Functionality

The “__unam” cookie is set as part of the ShareThis service and monitors “click-stream” activity, e.g. web pages viewed and navigated, and time spent on pages.

We are advised that the ShareThis service only personally identifies you if you have separately signed up with ShareThis for an account with them and given them your consent.

YouTube & Vimeo

If you play an embedded video on our site, there may be a cookie set by YouTube or Vimeo containing anonymous, non-personally-identifiable information (unless you are logged in to a Google account, if so you can find your privacy settings within your account settings) about the number of playbacks of embedded videos. To find out more please visit YouTube's embedding videos information page. You can find out more on the Google Privacy Policy (Google owns YouTube): www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy and the Vimeo Privacy Policy: <http://vimeo.com/privacy>
